ABOUT ME

I, Krishav Koirala, am a recent high school graduate in 2023, and I am an aspiring programmer with a keen interest in game development. With a solid foundation in programming, I envision a future where I can craft innovative and engaging gaming experiences. My journey reflects a dedication to honing my skills, evident in my pursuit of programming knowledge. I am not just a graduate; I am a forward-thinking individual with a passion for creating digital worlds.

To showcase my work, I have a website where I present my projects: <https://www.krishavkoirala.com.np/>. Additionally, you can explore my games on my itch.io page: <https://krishav.itch.io/>. Eager to contribute to the gaming industry, I am poised to embark on a dynamic path toward becoming a proficient game developer.
